Long E Vowel Teams

/ea/ or /ee/

* LEARNING ****

/ea/ and /ee/ both make the long E sound and are commonly found in the middle of words, at the end of syllables, and in multisyllabic words. There's no strict rule for when to use each spelling, so students need plenty of exposure and practice. Some find it helpful to use word categories: /ea/ often shows up in "meal words" (like eat, meat) and "wet words" (like sea, beach), while /ee/ is common in "nature words" (like tree, green).

/ea/  /ee/

meal words:

- eat
- treat
- tea

wet words:

- eagle
- beach
- sea

Nature words:

- bee
- teeth
- sheep
- beetle

Floss Rule

* LEARNING ****

After a short vowel sound in a ONE syllable word, f, s, l, z are doubled

-ff	-ll	-ss	-zz
• stuff	• ill	• floss	• buzz
• fluff	• spill	• toss	• frizz
• cluff	• dull	• grass	• jazz
• sluff	• bell	• miss	• fuzz

Floss Rule

After a short vowel sound in a ONE syllable word, f, s, l, z are doubled

-ff	-ll	-ss	-zz
• stuff	• ill	• floss	• buzz
• fluff	• spill	• toss	• frizz
• cliff	• dull	• grass	• jazz
• sniff	• bell	• kiss	• fuzz
• stiff	• bill	• miss	• fizz

Long A Vowel Teams

/ai/ or /ay/

Vowel teams are two or more letters that work together to make one vowel sound, like ai in rain or ea in team. These patterns often make long vowel sounds.

/ai/

/ai/ is in the middle of a word.

- rain
- train
- pain
- tail
- mail
- nail
- braid
- chain
- snail
- pail

/ay/

/ay/ is usually at the end of a word.

- day
- play
- stay
- tray
- gray
- clay
- spray
- delay
- okay
- away

-ge \ -dge

-ge

- If there's a consonant or vowel team before the /j/ OR after a long vowel
- NO words in the English language end in "j"

-dge

- If you hear "j" sound at the end of a syllable AND it is right after a short vowel.
- dge will never be at the beginning of a word.

-ge
• huge	• bulge	• village
• cage	• gouge	• strange
• large	• gorge	• stage

-dge
• judge	• fudge	• lodge
• ledge	• wedge	• badge
• bridge	• smudge	• hinge

Beware of Bossy

I boss the vowels and control their sounds. BUT I am polite so I let them go first!

ar	er	ir	or	ur
car	her	bird	more	curl
hard	cover	firm	cord	fur
far	water	dirt	corn	hurt
star	anger	girl	wore	nurse
farm	letter	shirt	form	turtle
scarf	nerve	third	floor	purple
are	verb	stir	store	turkey

Hard or soft "c"

The letter c makes a /k/ or /s/ sound. When c/ is before e, i, or y it makes the /s/ sound. When /c/ is followed by any other letter, it makes the /k/ sound.

Soft c: (s) after e, i, y

face

circus

icy

Hard c: (k) after any other letter

corn

cat

cup

3 sounds -ed

/t/ sound	/d/ sound	/id/ sound
• jumped	• played	• wanted
• kicked	• opened	• needed
• laughed	• called	• started
• hoped	• cleaned	• invited
• sniffed	• loved	• decided
• cracked	• pulled	• planted
• crashed	• shared	• landed

6 ways to spell a syllable

1	Open	rabbit	A syllable with a consonant-vowel-consonant. It's a short vowel sound.
2	magic e	me	A syllable ending with a single vowel (long vowel). Consonant-syllable go hi me
3	r-controlled	bake	A syllable with a vowel followed by an e (long vowel). The r becomes "bossy".

5		bee	ow, au, ew, oo, oi, oy, ow, ou
6	c+le	candle	Final Syllable with consonant and le bubble turtle candle

-ch \ -tch

-ch

- If the final "ch" sound follows a consonant, it is typically spelled as -ch.

-tch

- If the "ch" sound comes right after a single vowel, it is usually written as -tch

-ch
• search	• beach	• peach
• church	• poach	• punch
• lunch	• coach	• branch

-tch
• church	• watch	• match
• catch	• pitch	• snatch
• fetch	• hatch	• scratch
